FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
October 6, 2017

C. J. CARY, THE BLACK MAN SLANDERED BY DONALD TRUMP, FILES LAWSUIT.

October 6th 2016

Kinston, N.C.

On October 6, 2017 – I filed a Federal Lawsuit, at Lenoir County Superior Court, file number 17-CVS-834. The multiple defendant suit was filed against:

1. Candidate Donald Trump,
2. Republican National Chair, Reince Priebus
3. And several components of the Republican Party.

Republican Presidential Candidate Donald Trumps’ attack against me occurred nearly one year ago. What took me so long?

The reasons are many, but I want to share a few.

1. The healing process works at it’s on pace. Yes healing. Donald’s attack left me overwhelmed emotionally.
2. I as well wanted to be absolutely certain he was beyond redemption.
3. It is evident, Donald saw my life as a Black Man and Supporter to be without value, without merit. This is evident in the fact that he offered no apology, nor did his campaign or even his kids.
4. I also looked and looked for an attorney to assist me. I found one who thought about it and then decided I think Donald is too powerful. It seemed every Attorney I queried was too afraid!

5. After continuous prayer, I learned this was something that I would have to do.
 6. It has taken me many months to study and learn enough to put my case together.
 7. Such was not easy. Going from a gigantic supporter, to accepting that Donald made me an adversary, was also not easy. That was a part of the healing process. Accept the facts as they are and not as they may have once been or I wished they were.
 8. At one point State Representative Steve Tarvin, District 2, State of Georgia was so certain of the humanitarian qualities in Donald, he stated over and over, Donald is going to apologize to you, or someone from his team. We both waited not in vain, but in error.
- A. Some might say this is likened to David vs Goliath. I can understand that synopsis. But I want all to remember David and Goliath seemed to have always been adversaries. Donald was once a friend, before he used his words as a double edge sword through the very fabric of my heart. But not my faith and certainly not the soul of this Native Black American.
 - B. There is great importance to understanding the many local laws Donald and his henchmen broke by assaulting myself and others who they called Protestors. Of course, I qualified because I was born a Black American.
 - C. In the upcoming election for President, I pray Donald will be retired, unless he changes his hateful behavior. Enough is way to much of such.
 - D. Another motivating factor, was the words Donald used to described the NFL players kneeling. One should remember, the first steps to prayer is in fact, kneeling. Yet Donald hates this position. Does anyone wonder what kind of person would hate others right to kneel? Not a good person that's for sure.
 - E. Not last, but to be included: When Donald called the Moms of the NFL Players, I hate to even say this, but "bitches" and the players Sons of Bitches. That was a very disturbing event.
 - F. And yes, Donald is unequivocally a racist.

I am sincerely,

C.J. Cary

Thank you

Note: If anyone can provide the names of these two members of Donald's security team, please do so.

DEFENDANTS

1. INTRODUCTION

1. On October 26th, 2016, in Kinston, N.C., Plaintiff herein known as C.J. Cary attended a Republican Campaign event for the election of civilian Donald J. Trump as President of the United States.

II. PARTIES, JURISDICTION, VENUE

(Factual Statements)

2. Plaintiff is a resident of Nash County, North Carolina.

REPUBLICAN C.J. CARY, PLAINTIFF V CANDIDATE DONALD J TRUMP & THE REPUBLICIAN PARTY ET AL DEFENDANTS

3. Defendant Republican Donald J. Trump at the time maintained an address at 725 fifth Avenue New York, New York 1002. Per (Exhibit A).
4. Defendant Reince Priebus was a resident of Kenosha, Wisconsin. As the Chairman of the Republican National Committee he maintained an address at: 310 1st Street SE, Washington, DC 20003: However he can presumably be reached through the White House; 1600 Pennsylvania Ave NW Washington, D.C. 20006 and his previous political address.
5. Defendant Republican National Committee and National Campaign has a mailing and physical address at: 310 1st Street SE Washington, D.C. 20003.
6. Republican Candidate for President Donald J. Trump, then Republican Campaign Chairman Reince Priebus, Republican National Campaign for President and Republican National Committee, did business and operated in the Great State of North Carolina, Nash and Lenoir County. To which Kinston, N.C. is so located. At all relevant times during the election cycle of Campaign 2016, Defendants did business in statewide locations in North Carolina.
7. Defendant Campaign relied on Campaign events throughout the Great State of North Carolina.

8. Plaintiff seeks damages in excess of $25,000.00. The statutory sum sufficient that subject matter jurisdiction is properly vested in the Superior Court Division; pursuant to N.C.G.S. § 7A-243

III. History and Causes

9. Plaintiff had been a Donald J. Trump for supporter and Presidential supporter, starting on or about the year 1987. Plaintiff having started a letter writing campaign in 2003 to U.S. Officials (i.e. President George W. Bush, C.I.A. and F.B.I., for example), regarding pending and future terrorist attacks. Plaintiff decided to add then civilian Donald J. Trump to his patriotic list of respected U.S. Governmental Officials. Intent being to assist, teach and prepare civilian Donald J. Trump for the difficulties and harshness of the Presidency. Especially since civilian Donald J. Trump had no previous Federal Service or experience.
10. Plaintiff gave civilian Donald J. Trump thru the vast number of letters sent to same at the Trump Organization, New York, N.Y, information and advice of things he needed to learn, consider and build upon to be an effective Candidate for President and later President.

11. Plaintiff estimates he sent civilian and Republican Candidate for President Donald J. Trump in excess of fifty, encompassing hundreds of pages of presidential advisory letters or memos up to October 26th, 2016. The last letter delivered on that fateful date.
12. Those advisory letters included such recommendations as; jobs being lost and exported to other countries; which must be stopped. The war on terrorism would be lost; without stringent and diligent efforts to protect our sovereignty. Plaintiff gave guidance so as to prepare civilian Donald J Trump with information and details about how the Plaintiff viewed the world regarding terrorism, lost jobs, H1B1 Visa abuse, financial institutions abuse and basically the struggles of the poor and the getting poorer. Plaintiff H1B1 concerns are about Indian (Country of India) citizens, taking over and firing, U.S. Citizens from our bread and butter jobs. Plaintiff addressed what he viewed as Nationality discrimination by Indians, as they quietly institute their system of social casts and fired both Black and White Americans; Which has and will continue to erode and degrade our American way of life: Sadly, this is happening right under our very noses. Such usurping of our family structure and economic happiness; must have multiple grievous effects; even upon the very fabric of this once Greater Nation. We are being attacked from within; by "smiling faces" with nefarious plans. The inclusion of Civilian Donald J. Trump in these Federal papers was specifically and intentionally done to show both civilian Donald J. Trump and Federal Officials that civilian Donald J. Trump would become a stakeholder in the lives of U.S. Citizens at the Federal level.

Plaintiff was assured by Faith his inclusion of civilian Donald J. Trump, would lead same to one of two electoral victories. The election of 2012 or 2016 same would earn the title of P.O.T.U.S.. Of Course, he had to enter the race.

13. The lists of recommendations to civilian Donald J. Trump, who became Republican Candidate Donald J. Trump, who became the 45th President of the United States are too many to place in this pleading. However, a soon to be released book;

Last of The Lost Worlds, will so list and share in volumes one and two.

14. Plaintiff heretofore makes known that civilian Donald J. Trump and Republican Presidential Candidate Donald J. Trump showed appreciation, by writing back on more than one occasion and thanking Plaintiff for the many suggestions and recommendations.

(Exhibit A) .

15. However on 10.26.16, as a Republican Presidential Candidate-Supporter; Plaintiff was as others in Kinston, N.C. at a Republican and Donald J. Trump campaign event. Plaintiff was exercising his right of peaceful assembly and participation in the American election process like the White Republican supporters.

Plaintiff joined in calling out to Candidate Donald J. Trump by yelling, Donald, Donald, and waiving his white sheets of paper. As others were yelling Trump, Trump, Trump and waving signs.

16. Plaintiff did get Republican Candidate Donald J Trump's attention. However, in a manner never expected.

17. Plaintiff was clearly wearing a Republican Supporter metal lapel badge.

18. Republican Presidential Candidate Donald J. Trump, being covered by a host of live world media television broadcasting stations, and print media as well as radio broadcasters turned towards Plaintiff, then back towards the vastness of supporters, media and said: Folks it looks like we have a Protestor!

19. The thousands of supporters many started yelling where is he, kick him out, kick him out!
20. Plaintiff initially wondered where the protestor was just as others. Then upon realizing Candidate Donald J. Trump was talking about and later to Plaintiff: he had cause to fear for his safety and well-being since the crowd was taking on the appearance of a mob.
21. Republican Presidential Candidate Donald J. Trump then told the crowd, naw leave him alone.
22. Within the same breath; Republican Candidate Donald J. Trump turned and pointed directly at Plaintiff. Thereby causing the already hostile crowd to focus greater hostility, attention and anger directly at Plaintiff. Yelling at Plaintiff and raising their fists in a gesture of striking or attacking Plaintiff.
23. Republican Candidate Donald J. Trump at one point said the following; "were you paid by $1,500 dollars to be a thug?"
Looking directly in Plaintiff's direction; Republican Candidate for President, then said, "where's the Protestor"?
"Where is he?" "Was he paid?".
24. Republican Presidential Candidate Donald J. Trump then told his security detail "you can get him out"!
25. Plaintiff then yells "Donald it's C.J.: Donald C.J.!"

26. Plaintiff believes he saw a stunned and surprised facial expression from the Candidate. Which was accompanied by a hesitation and verbally stumbling action by Candidate Donald J. Trump. That hesitation in his voice was as if he choked.
27. This would have been caused by Presidential Candidate Donald J. Trump, having quite a bit of familiarity with Republican and Presidential Supporter C.J. Cary.
28. The history of direct contact between Plaintiff and Candidate Trump started on or about 1992; during divorce proceedings between then civilian Donald J. Trump and Mrs. Ivana Zelnícková Trump. Plaintiff wrote two letters, asking both parties to consider reconciliation rather than divorce. One to then civilian Donald J. Trump and the other to Mrs. Trump. Both parties wrote back, thanking Plaintiff for his concerns.
29. When Plaintiff shouted to Presidential Candidate Donald J. Trump; it's C.J., Candidate Trump's pause was evident. There was a time when civilian Donald J. Trump would offer to the public, statements of verbal nothing-ness, such as his investigative team in Hawaii, discovered the former President had no U.S. citizenship standing. Plaintiff suggest such statements were efforts to keep Defendant publically relevant. Plaintiff states, upon civilian

Donald J. Trump realizing the importance of the many letters written to him: containing the word Great, he could in fact, exploit the meaning of that word as applied to him and create be a political goldmine to gather public support for his Presidency. He did as was intended.

30. Plaintiff believes that Republican Presidential Candidate Donald J. Trump, recognized the frenzy mood he had incited the crowd into and was lacking in character, compassion and remorse to correct his racially motivated mistake. He was unable to show even a small amount of compassion for a Black man who had devoted years to helping him achieve the Presidency. Plaintiff was physically assaulted and removed.
31. Plaintiff on more than one occasion worked as a volunteer at the headquarters of Republican Presidential Candidate Donald J. Trump. (Exhibit C)
32. This service to Republican President Candidate Donald J. Trump was in both North Carolina and in South Carolina.
33. Plaintiff was so good at swaying uncertain voters to give strong consideration to voting for Republican Candidate Donald J. Trump, that campaign Officials asked Plaintiff to leave the confines of telephone cold calls and go out into the communities and knock on doors. While this was not a promotion it was certainly presented as an elevation in Campaign status.

34. At one point, Republican Presidential Candidate Donald J Trump's North Carolina Chair, a Mr. Earl Phillips, asked Plaintiff if he would be interested in managing a Republican Campaign site in Raleigh, N.C.
35. Plaintiff only received one political apology for the egregious and discriminatory behavior of Republican Candidate for President Donald J. Trump. It came from The Honorable Steve Tarvin, Georgia House of Representatives, Republican - Chickamauga Georgia-District 2. (A).
36. Plaintiff received a number of defamatory comments from strangers across the United States. The language being of such a derogatory manner, Plaintiff was ill prepared to expect. So Insulting Plaintiff found no recourse but to block them. (Exhibit E)
37. At least one Politician apologized and tried to get Republican Presidential Candidate Donald J. Trump or anyone from the Campaign to apologize. Plaintiff personally, had hopes that Republican Campaign Chairman Reince Priebus would apologize. As it turned out hoping for an apology was quite the false hope. Both Plaintiff and The Honorable Steve Tarvin were quite disappointed.

I cannot say enough good about Representative Tarvin

(Exhibit B)

38. In that Plaintiff has waited eight months or more, for some positive efforts by the parties referenced as Defendants: to show some contrition, empathy, regret, remorse, wisdom or even maturity and growth so as make efforts to correct the libelous, slanderous and defamatory statements and actions of Republican Party Presidential Candidate, Donald J. Trump. And the silence of Republican Party Chairman Reince Priebus, and other Defendants as herein named.

39. Plaintiff now comes to this court and prays this Court will hold the Defendants; Republican Candidate for President Donald J. Trump, the Trump Campaign and other Defendants as herein name; accountable for the harm, loss of reputation, loss of standing in Plaintiffs' community; and loss of standing with family, friends and global social media communities; as well as loss of Political opportunities; responsible and demand that Defendants make whole again this Plaintiff.

40. In reference to lost political opportunities: Please know the following:

A Nash County Republican Party member asked Plaintiff to speak publically at a local Republican Party event on or about early October 2016. Invitation extended, invitation accepted. Mr. Robert Cordell, Nash County N.C. Attorney Mark E. Edwards Nash County North Carolina Republican Party Chair gave his blessings. Afterwards a Nash County Republican Official asked Plaintiff if he would consider running for Nash County North Carolina Republican Party Office? Plaintiff response was an Unequivocally, yes. After Republican Candidate Donald J. Trump defamed, libeled, slandered, maligned, attacked and humiliated Plaintiff, the admiration and contact from Nash County North Carolina Republican Party Officials stopped. Another opportunity destroyed.

III. Legal Claims

Plaintiff's First Cause of Action

(Defamation of Character, Libel, Slander and Verbal and Physical Assault and Battery).

41. The allegations contained in the foregoing paragraphs are incorporated by reference herein.
42. Defendant Republican Presidential Candidate Donald J. Trump placed Plaintiff in reasonable fear of harmful and offensive contact when he, in a crowd of thousands of White supporters, falsely advertised Plaintiff to as a campaign protestor, disruptor and thug. The key defamation here is thug. Defined by Merriam-Webster as: a brutal ruffian or assassin or gangster: Defined by others as a violent person, especially a criminal. Thug as defined by dictionary.com; a cruel or vicious ruffian, robber, or murderer. Defendant Donald J. Trump had Plaintiff physically and forcibly dragged out of the event. As Plaintiff was being dragged out; one of the two security detail asked the following? What happened? Why did he throw you out? You are wearing a Republican I.D. badge!. I responded, for some reason, he thought I am a protestor. I was calling his name like others. In hindsight, Plaintiff realizes he was in denial of that racist event. Even though Plaintiff showed no resistance to leaving, he was still forcibly dragged out. Upon reaching the security gate one of the two, security details shouted "throw this guy out and do not let him back in". The letter was taken by one of the security

These actions established the elements of both assault and battery, along with the civil actions as described upon Plaintiff's person.

43. Thus Republican Presidential Candidate Donald J. Trump

did verbally and physical assault Plaintiff: Thereby violating a variety of civil and criminal state and Federal laws as well as many laws of decency. These acts have caused Plaintiff immeasurable and irrevocable pain and suffering.

44. It being that these illegal acts occurred on live television, radio and print media, worldwide, has given Plaintiff extreme and severe duress, emotional bouts of depression and insomnia.
45. Plaintiff asserts that Republican Candidate for President Donald J. Trump not only defamed, slandered, libeled and assaulted and battered Plaintiff's character and person; But Candidate Donald J. Trump was exerting gross racial discrimination in so doing. On occasions, Republican Presidential Candidate Donald J. Trump, upon identifying White male supporters at his campaign events, did in fact; extend to them an experience which up-lifted them before their peers, family, friends, communities and the world. He invited them to come on to the stage or he spoke kindly to and about them.
46. For example; according to an account written by ABC News Stephanie Ebbs; to which Plaintiff saw on various news channel; on Feb 18, 2017, 8:36 PM ET. Location was Melbourne, Florida. "President Donald Trump invited a supporter to take the stage with him at his campaign rally in Florida Saturday night. Trump said he saw the man on television when he was interviewed in the line waiting to enter the rally. Trump pointed him out during the rally and invited him on stage."

47. Once news both in print and televised carried the story: Republican Candidate Donald J. Trump made a gross mistake in calling a devout supporter, a thug; Republican Candidate Donald J. Trump; allowed his violations of law and decency to stand. Thereby confirming his racist views against Plaintiff and Black People.
48. Republican Candidate for President, Donald J. Trump is solely responsible for the injurious words and deeds that had a grossly negative effect upon Plaintiff

Plaintiff's Second Cause of Action

(Assault and Physical Battery Against Plaintiff)

49. The allegations contained in the foregoing paragraphs are incorporated by reference herein.
50. Furthermore; upon Republican Candidate Donald J. Trump ordering security personnel to place their hands upon Plaintiff's person; thereby dragging him out of the Campaign event was an act of gross negligence and battery. And in fact represent a physical harm upon the person of Plaintiff.

As defined by assault and battery. That was criminal.

51. Republican Candidate for President Donald J. Trump did in fact; order his security personnel to manhandle Plaintiff in an offensive and humiliating manner.

52. Republican Candidate for President Donald J. Trump, well knew, if Plaintiff showed any resistance or expressions of anger, a greater altercation would have occurred. One which could have landed Plaintiff in jail or the victim of serious physical harm. Both conditions placing Plaintiff life and welfare in jeopardy.

53. Battery upon Plaintiffs person was not required. The mere asking Plaintiff to leave was more than sufficient. However Republican Candidate President Donald J. Trump wanted to show how much contempt he had for Black people; by showing the world, he can and did throw a Black man out into the streets like a dog. Thereby stripping Plaintiff of any remaining dignity. Plaintiff also makes known he was dressed in business, casual attire. Dark blue blazer, dress shirt, dress jeans and Italian boots. In no vain did Plaintiff appear as a "thug". Except in the eyes of a racism.

54. Defendant at no time and in no way, reached out to Plaintiff to express even one mustard seed of remorse.
55. As a foreseeable and proximate result of Defendants conduct; Plaintiff suffered extreme and severe depression; extreme severe humiliation; extreme insomnia; humiliating mocking by supporters of the opposing Presidential Candidate; severe name calling by some, including words such as, coon, nigger, uncle Tom and pity from many as well as gross silence from others.
56. Plaintiff only made it through this horrible and turbulent time, by Grace of God and his devotion to extreme prayer. This time in Plaintiff's life was devoid of many of the comforting aspects of appreciation in life for working for and on behalf of a Political Party.
57. Defendants et al, actions were done with an evil disregard for the potential harm done to another human being based on his words and behavior. Even more so if a mistake was made. Maliciously and intentionally assaulting a campaign supporter is most unfortunate, especially so when the only aspect of Plaintiffs being that could be judged adversely by Republican President Candidate Donald J. Trump was skin color. As such this Court should not allow such behavior to go unpunished. The willful and wanton attacks by Defendant must be held to the standards of common decency.

A reckless disregard for the rights of Plaintiff should in no way be allowed to go unaddressed: Those rights as guaranteed by the U.S. Constitution, the "Bill of Rights" of this Great Nation and to include Plaintiffs first amendment rights; Plaintiff right to peaceful assembly without the fear of being attacked, persecuted and terrorized by Defendant Donald J. Trump and the Republican Party et al.

Plaintiff Third Cause of Action

(Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress Against Plaintiff)

58. The allegations contained in the foregoing paragraphs are incorporated by reference herein.
59. Plaintiff entrusted Defendant Republican Candidate for President Donald J. Trump, with a civil duty to show respect and kind professionalism. In so much as Kinston, N.C. was not Plaintiffs first Campaign event as already referenced herein. (Exhibit C). (Greenville, S.C. Trump's former Campaign Headquarters.
60. Defendant Republican Candidate Donald J. Trump's behavior and conduct in no way represented the conduct and behavior of a Presidential Candidate. He exhibited clear malicious, vile and hateful behavior.

61. Separate and apart from Defendant Candidate Donald J. Trumps disgraceful, dehumanizing and malicious conduct; Defendant Republican Campaign et al, is equally responsible for the injurious, tortuous acts of its agent Defendant Republican Presidential Candidate, Donald J. Trump. Defendant Republican Candidate Donald J. Trump actions were expressly sanctioned by Republican National Committee & Campaign. As Defendant had established a history of forcefully evicting persons from the 2016 Republican Presidential Campaign Events.

62. It should be noted and accepted, that on the evening of October 26th, 2016 in Kinston, N.C.: Republican Candidate for President Donald J. Trump was not only acting in the capacity of Candidate for President; but equally acting for and on behalf of Reince Priebus as Republican National Chairman, Republican National Campaign for President and Republican National Committee. The distinction is apparent and profoundly clear. All Defendant Entities worked as one.

63. Defendant Republican Candidate for President, Donald J. Trump actions and behaviors exceeded the bounds of decency, as expected and tolerated behavior for a civilized and dignified Nation. Especially so when Republican Candidate for President Donald J. Trump was running for the most powerful office in the world. President of the United States of America.

64. Plaintiff sets forth the following: Republican Presidential Candidate Donald J. Trump's behavior during the Kinston NC campaign event; troubled the conscience of many American's. Because the clear majority of Americans believe in the better and more dignified qualities of human behavior. Those qualities are in part but not limited to the following:

- a. The individual and or collective strength to know when one has done wrong;
- b. The integrity to stand humble in the face of one's personal mistakes: Especially when it is shown such convictions are wrong; and for one to take actions to amend the wrong.
- c. This could amount to a simple apology. Even if an offered apology is painful; within the values of this great Nation, we know and accept wrongs must be righted. Even our system of Jurisprudence is based upon the righting of wrongs. When we have given pain to others, we have a Christian, moral, and undeniable responsibility to make amends.

64. If and when a person finds themselves unable for whatever the reason: To show remorse and contrition when they at their own hands; have made a grossly negligent error and they find themselves too much of a non-human to offer, to make whole the party(s) they attacked: It has been long standing that when and if the offending party loses their way to make amends; The aggrieved party has the right to come before our system of jurisprudence; The Courts. It is at that moment in time, Plaintiff now find myself. Coming to the Courts for redress.

65. It was foreseeable that the behavior of Republican Candidate for President, Donald J. Trump, would at some point be predictable were it allowed to continue. That predictability now has brought us to this point in time. Predictable by those who had authority over their party Candidates; Republican National Party, Committee and Campaign.

66. The embarrassment, shame, severe emotional distress, humiliation, depression, insomnia, loss of peace of mind as well as loss of standing in Plaintiff's communities are a direct result of Republican Candidate for President Donald J. Trump attacks and assaults on 10.26.17, in Kinston, North Carolina.

67. Republican Candidate for President Donald J. Trump created an extreme scenario of duress. Which need not have been.

It's just that simple.

Plaintiffs' Fourth Cause of Action

(Negligent Infliction of Emotional Distress Caused by Defendant)

68. The allegations contained in the foregoing paragraphs are incorporated by reference herein.
69. Defendant Campaign, The Republican National Party; entrusted Defendant Donald J. Trump to exercise a duty of care and responsibility to support Republican Voters in a light and manner that would bring victory to the so mentioned party.
70. Defendant Donald J. Trump grossly violated that given and sensible approach to Voters support; by attacking, assaulting and exercising battery on the person of Plaintiff.
71. Even assuming Republican Campaign felt there was little they could do to curtail the verbal attacks executed by Republican Candidate for President Donald J Trump; They, the Defendants as herein described, could easily have went around their Candidate and offered to amend the injurious incident. Republican Campaign et al had many forewarnings that Republican Candidate for President, Donald J. Trump had on many previous occasions shown a propensity and disregard for the rights of Americans to peacefully assembly. However, on more than one or two occasions, Defendant Republican Candidate for President would have so called "Protestors" physically and forcibly removed from his events. Republican Campaign had a responsibility to have in place a process or program by which, should Candidate Donald J. Trump continue to violate their charter, to hold him responsible and to make amends. They the Republican Party failed in both regards and are now being called to task.

72. One could easily give odds that sooner or later, Candidate Donald J. Trump would assail and assault a supporter. Statistically; such an event was destined to happen.

(Exhibit D & D-1). (Yard Signs)

73. The mere fact that a Black Male supported Candidate Donald J. Trump, and stood amongst a field of White supporters, should in no way, have caused Defendant Republican Candidate for President Donald J Trump to have any concerns of being disrupted. This behavior was good for crowd incitement and media toughness. In the same vain Plaintiff should in no way have anticipated being attacked by Republican Candidate Donald J. Trump or his representatives. Republican Candidate for President Donald J. Thumps' behavior was Unconscionable reprehensible and should not be allowed to stand, as a tolerated event in American history.

Plaintiffs Fifth Cause of Action

(Negligent Retention and The Lack of Supervision Claim Against Defendant Campaign)

74. The allegations contained in the foregoing paragraphs are incorporated by reference herein.
75. At all times herein, Defendant Campaign, Republican National Committee, had a duty to exercise due care in the supervision of their Republican Presidential Candidate. Even with a Candidate, as rambunctious as Republican Candidate for President Donald J. Trump, said Candidate was running under the Banneker of becoming the Republican Party President, Defendant Campaign should have exercised some level of control.
76. If for any reason, Defendant Campaign found themselves unable to exercise any reasonable control over their Republican Candidate; said Republican Campaign aka Republican National Committee, Republican National Party et al; should have then created an alternative plan based on the greater characteristics that embellished the spirit and morals of our founding Fathers.
77. Plaintiff states, in the bylaws and the rules of the Republican Campaign and National Republican Committee,

Republican National Party, they set forth the following:

PREAMBLE ;

"BE IT RESOLVED, That the Republican Party is the party of the open door. Ours is the party of liberty, the party of equality, of opportunity for all, and favoritism for none. It is the intent and purpose of these rules to encourage and allow the broadest possible participation of all voters in Republican Party activities at all levels and to assure that the Republican Party is open and accessible to all Americans. BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the following be and hereby are adopted as The Rules of the Republican Party, composed of the rules for the election and government of the Republican National Committee until the next national convention, the rules under which delegates and alternate delegates shall be allotted to the respective states in the next national convention, and the rules under which such delegates and alternate delegates shall be elected and under which contests shall be considered, and the rules of business of this national convention."

78. In so much as the Republican National Chair, The Republican National Committee, The Republican National Party, Republican National Campaign has so established, their dominance over any Republican Candidate or activity and it seeming they failed to exercise any reasonable and expected control over Republican Candidate for President Donald J. Trump. As such they the Defendant Republican National Chair, Defendant National Campaign, Defendant Republican National Committee and Defendant National Party, are as culpable as Republican Candidate for President, Donald J. Trump.

79. Defendant Campaign was further negligent in its supervision or the lack thereof, relative to Candidate Donald J. Trump's behavior. As it should have known the repetitive demeaning and torturous behavior of Republican Candidate Donald J. Trump would at some point cause injury to Defendant Campaign, Committee and to the moral values of Republican Voters. While said Defendant Campaign did not know Plaintiff would become the victim of Candidate Donald J. Trumps egregious behavior: still had Defendant Republicans et. al taken reasonable and expected care over their Republican Candidate, 10.26.17 would never have happened.

80. Thus Plaintiff would never have suffered the severe emotional distress, severe mental anguish, anxiety, humiliation, embarrassment, battery and irreparable harm of that night October 26th 2016. The time and expenses to rebuild Plaintiffs dignity, reputation and confidence in the Republican brand again requires multiple damages be awarded. Including but not limited to compensatory damages.

81. Defendant Campaign & Defendant Republican Candidate Actions were done malicious, willfully and wantonly and in a manner, that demonstrates a total reckless disregard for Plaintiffs rights. Because of Defendant Campaign and Defendant Republican Candidate for President Donald J. Trump's conduct; Plaintiff is entitled to recover punitive damages.

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

WHEREFORE, the Plaintiff prays the Court to:

82. Enter a judgment against Defendants and order Defendants to pay Plaintiff compensatory damages in excess of an amount sum sufficient that subject matter jurisdiction is properly vested in the Court and as well punitive damages.

83. Award Plaintiff all reasonable costs and fees incurred in connection with this action. Plaintiff notes this action is being filed Pro Se. Until and or Unless counsel can be located.

84. Plaintiff wants to remind all, he is in no way qualified to bring this action before this Court. However, he asks this Court to know the following: Plaintiff is a Marine Disabled Veteran and Afghanistan Army Veteran. The values by which Plaintiff and thousands of Americans have served this Great Nation; demand that even in, no especially in the face of overwhelming power; we never, ever give up. We stand strong until there is not one breath left. Before that one expires, we find a way to fight on, even after our demise. This this action is predicated on the foundation of American strength, and values; which lead to this Nation's founding in the face of overwhelming odds against. In the spirit of E pluribus Unum; Plaintiff ask this case be given a wide latitude of forbearance.

85. Award Plaintiff such other and further equitable relief as the Court deems appropriate under the circumstances:

And;

86. Grant Plaintiff a trial of this matter by a jury.

TRUMP

MAKE AMERICA GREAT AGAIN!

June 28, 2016

C.J. Cary

3661 Sunset Ave #222

Rocky Mount, NC 27804

Dear C.J.,

Thank you for your recent letter. We truly appreciate your support and encouragement. It's Americans like you who are helping to ensure that Mr. Trump becomes the next President of the United States.

Our nation is deeply in need of political reform, and a President with the ability to bring about dramatic and positive change. Mr. Trump's experience as a business executive, employing thousands, balancing budgets, and winning at negotiations all over the world makes him the most qualified candidate to restore American greatness.

Mr. Trump is dedicated to putting the interests of Americans first – protecting their jobs, boosting their incomes, and defending their rights against those who would violate them.

His only special interest is you, the American voter. And he will never stop fighting for you.

We are honored to call you a valuable member of Team Trump and to work with you on rescuing the future of our country. Supporters like you are the key to realizing our dreams for a country where people, not politicians, come first. Sharing your enthusiasm for this campaign, and your commitment to improving your country, is the key to success in November – and the key to saving this country for the Americans of today and tomorrow.

Together we will Make America Great Again!

Sincerely,

Team Trump

Your document

Oct 29

Sir I have been a friend to Donald since 1986 when I worked for the Treasury Dept Investigating the Atlantic City Casinos. He personally wrote me a very kind letter in 1989/90 when he and Ivana were going thru their divorce. Ivana also wrote me. They both thanked me, and suggested people grow apart. This was a Triumph moment. Neither Donald nor Ivana had any responsibility to respond. They both did. My name is Lawrence CJ Cary. I prefer C.J. since it is short & simple. The document can be seen in full at justice4america.org I will try to fix the 1 page on twitter.

truly you are also A Great Man. So true thru HIM. I will keep you informed.

Oct 29

Good job for Trump in the Washington Post, most are not the man of God you are (what was in the post will let everyone know what kind of man you truly are). I still am working on a connection and have forwarded your number and document forward. They are very busy right now, but I feel we may be able to get it through channels before the election if not then after. Working for you to be heard.

'Were you paid $1,500 to be a thug?': Black Trump supporter escorted out of rally after the Donald mistakes him for a protester

A black Trump supporter was thrown out of a campaign rally after he was accused of being a protester.

C. J. Cary , a long time supporter of the Donald, attended the rally in Kinston, North Carolina on Wednesday.

'Get him out!': Trump Removes Black Supporter From Rally, Calls Him 'Thug'

Trump was mid-speech when the crowd began booing, waving their Trump Pence signs and pointing at Cary.

'That's all right, leave him alone,' the Republican presidential candidate told the crowd, according to the News Observer.

But he swiftly changed his mind.

'We have a protester,' Trump declared.

'By the way, were you paid $1,500 to be a thug?' he asked, scanning the crowd. 'Where's the protester? Where is he? Was he paid?'

Accused 'thug' escorted out of Trump's Kinston rally says he's actually a supporter

BY BRYAN ANDERSON
Correspondent

OCTOBER 28, 2016 10:55 AM

KINSTON — Nash County resident C.J. Cary arrived at the Kinston Jet Center Wednesday night in eager anticipation of a Donald Trump rally.

Cary says he wanted to deliver a note to Trump urging him to be less offensive and more inclusive to four demographic groups: black people, women, people with disabilities and college students. Cary, an African-American, says he's an ex-Marine who also worked in Afghanistan as a civilian for the U.S. Army.

He walked his way toward the front rows, stood about 20-30 feet from the stage and shouted "Donald" while waving his document to try to get Trump's attention.

"He entirely mistook that and thought that I was a protester," Cary said.

Trump's response: "Were you paid $1,500 to be a thug?" Cary was escorted out.

In the third and final presidential debate, Trump said the Clinton campaign was paying protesters to disrupt his rallies.

Cary said he wasn't there to protest Trump's appearance. In fact, he said, he supports the Republican presidential nominee. He just wants to see Trump act more polite and welcoming to minorities.

The Rocky Mount Telegram wrote about the dozens of Trump signs in Cary's yard, some of which were vandalized.

Cary said he views the presidential race as a choice between two apples: one rotten apple and one that is sour and bitter. He views Trump as the sour one, and supports him because he said Trump has some redemptive qualities.

In the note itself, Cary told Trump the following:

"I have to get ready to come to Kinston. Donald I am not including everything. But you must defeat lying Hillary and lying Obama. These characters are bad really bad."

One official on Trump's personal security detail who escorted Cary out of the venue noticed he was wearing a GOP badge. Cary explained he just wanted to give Trump his note.

"I said, 'I was trying to get to this doc to Mr. Donald ... will you get this to Donald?'" Cary said. "He said, 'Well dude, we'd be happy to give it to him.'"

According to Cary, the security official told him he should have contacted someone on Trump's staff or security detail instead of disrupting the rally. The official then accepted Cary's request to pass along the note to Trump.

Black man kicked out of Trump rally turned out to be a supporter

C.J. Cary, wearing sunglasses, waved to fellow Trump supporters as they goaded him

A black man who was kicked out of a Donald Trump rally and labelled a ‘thug’ by the presidential candidate is a long-time supporter of the Republican.

C.J. Cary was accused of being a protester by Trump, who interrupted his speech in Kinston, North Carolina to ensure Cary was removed from the venue.

Ukip leadership frontrunner would have referendum on bringing back death penalty

However, the businessman couldn't have been more wrong, as Mr Cary attended in support of Trump – and was hoping to hand-deliver a note he had written to him.

But despite the humiliating incident, Mr Cary insisted he will still vote for Trump over Hillary Clinton.

Footage shows the crowd becoming restless as Trump says ‘we have a protester’, before asking him ‘were you paid $1,500 to be a thug?’

Trump then instructed his security to 'get him out', to cheers from the crowd.

Mr Cary told the Washington Post: 'Everyone else is waving Trump signs and I'm waving this white letter.'

He said that, coupled with the fact that he was wearing sunglasses at the evening rally to deal with his sensitivity to light, may have sparked alarm.

Mr Cary added that the security official agreed to deliver the letter for him.

Mr Cary added: 'I was a little sad but was more happy than sad because my purpose for being there was to give that document to Donald.'

Black man called 'thug' by Trump at rally says he still supports him

CJ Cary was escorted out of a Donald Trump rally last week in North Carolina and called a “thug” by the Republican presidential nominee.

Cary was not a protester. He was at the rally because he’s a Trump supporter.

And, despite being labeled a “thug” by the very man he supports, he’s still supporting him.

“I still think he is a great man,” Cary told theGrio.com in an interview.

Video from the rally shows a large number of Trump supporters pointing at Cary, signaling security to escort him out for what they thought at the time was “protesting.” Trump, sensing Cary was a protester, can then be heard saying, “we have a protester.”

"By the way," Trump continued, "Were you paid $1,500 to be a thug? [...] You can get him out, get him out."

But if you think Cary is upset about the ordeal, you would be wrong.

'Thug' escorted out of Trump's Kinston rally says he's actually a supporter 1:40

"Calling me a thug does not indicate that I'm black," Cary said, "A thug technically can be anybody that's disruptive and does not respect the rights of others, and that's what he saw me doing, not being a part of the event and spirit of others."

In fact, Cary says Donald Trump has been falsely accused of making racist comments against blacks.

"I have not heard Donald Trump say anything racially against a person," Cary insists.

Cary says he attended the rally to deliver Trump an important document proposal that came to him in a dream.

The document apparently had four key points that explained why Donald Trump should reach out and apologize to some voters that he offended, including women and disabled people, but not African-Americans. Still, Cary says since the event made national headlines he has been bombarded with criticism.

"My house got egged a few days ago, constantly trashed, people have been out on the front lawn, torn up my [Trump] sign," Cary said. "I refuse to let them make me back down a coward because it's my right to support whomever I choose."

— Trump campaign accused of intimidating thousands of black voters —

As for why he is not choosing to vote for Hillary Clinton, Cary believes she "lost her way" and is solely motivated by money.

Trump has not polled well with black supporters. A recent CBS News Poll shows just 4 percent of African Americans support Donald Trump, but Cary says the polls indicate unfounded hatred African-Americans have for Trump and his supporters.

TheGrio.com reached out to the Trump campaign about the incident but did not get a response.

'Thug' escorted out of Trump's Kinston rally says he's actually a supporter 1:40

Donald Trump booted a black man from a North Carolina rally and called him a "thug" after mistaking him for a protester hired by the Clinton campaign.

The ejected attendee, C.J. Cary, is actually an ardent Trump supporter who says he's exchanged letters with the real estate mogul since 1992, according to a Rocky Mount Telegram story from July. Cary, a former Marine, arrived to the rally in Kinston, N.C., on Thursday night hoping to give Trump a note urging him to run a more inclusive campaign, he told the News & Observer.

“He entirely mistook that and thought I was a protester,” Cary told the paper.

Cary said he was determined to deliver Trump a message encouraging him to be more accepting of black people, women, the disabled and college students, the News & Observer reported.

He managed to get within 30 feet of the podium where Trump was speaking, waving the note and shouting “Donald,” before the candidate singled him out.

Cary told the paper.

Cary's support for Trump is well-documented — in July, he told the Rocky Mount Telegram that he's spent roughly $1,800 replacing some of the 40 Trump campaign signs he displays in his yard when vandals repeatedly steal them.

In the same story, he said he began corresponding with Trump in 1992 while the magnate was going through his first divorce. Cary said Trump responded to his letters.

"I support Trump because he's honest," Cary told the Rocky Mount Telegram. "You can work with an honest person and convince them their vision isn't in the best interest of everyone. You can't work with dishonest people. That's why I don't like Obama — the worst president in American history."

Trump has targeted black attendees at his rallies in the past.

The GOP nominee is earning a paltry 4% of black likely voters, according to the latest CBS News poll.

Trump booted a black man from his rally and called him a 'thug.' Turns out he is a supporter.

By Amy B Wang October 29, 2016

Midway into his speech, the crowd suddenly grew restless, so Donald Trump paused.

An increasing number of people began pointing at a person to Trump's right. Soon, hundreds of people who had gathered for his Wednesday evening campaign rally in Kinston, N.C., were frantically waving their "Trump Pence" signs in that direction.

Trump glanced at the person his supporters were singling out: A black man wearing a suit jacket and sunglasses.

"That's all right, leave him alone," said Trump, who at first seemed dismissive of what he saw.

He quickly pivoted.

"We have a protester," Trump declared. The crowd booed.

"By the way, were you paid $1,500 to be a thug?" he said, seemingly addressing both the crowd and the person simultaneously.

"Where's the protester? Where is he? Was he paid?"

(Trump has accused Clinton's campaign of paying protesters to disrupt his rallies after an online video sting by the conservative group Project Veritas Action captured a Democratic operative describing "conflict engagement in the lines at Trump rallies." The Washington Post's Fact Checker noted that Trump had "jumbled up a lot of the issues brought up in the video by Project Veritas" and rated the claim "Three Pinocchios.")

Somewhere in the crowd, Trump's security detail escorted a man out of the rally as the audience cheered.

"You can get him out," Trump said, making a sideways motion with his thumb. "Get him out."

The person in question turned out to be C.J. Cary, a North Carolina resident, who claims to be a longtime Trump supporter.

Cary, in a phone interview Saturday with The Washington Post, said he had gone to the rally because he wanted to hand-deliver a note to the Republican presidential nominee. He made his way to about 20 to 30 feet from the stage and was shouting “Donald!” while waving his note around to try to catch his attention.

“Everyone else is waving Trump signs and I'm waving this white letter,” Cary, 63, said. He said that, coupled with the fact that he was wearing sunglasses during an evening rally to deal with his sensitivity to light, may have been what set people off.

That's when Trump's crowd turned on him, and Cary was removed from.

Cary said a security official noticed he appeared to be a supporter but said he should not have disrupted the rally.

“He asked me, 'What happened? You have on a GOP badge,'" Cary said. “I said, 'I'm yelling at Donald, and he thinks I'm a protester.'”

Cary explained that he had wanted to hand Trump a note, and the security official agreed to deliver the letter on Cary's behalf, he said.

“If you had just gotten this to us we would have given it to him," Cary said he was told. “But now that people think you're a protester, it's better that you leave.”

In video footage, Cary can be seen waving to the crowd as he is escorted out of the rally. He later said it was “all fine” and that he still plans on voting for Trump.

Cary has not heard back officially from the Trump campaign but says at least one Trump surrogate in Georgia reached out to him after the incident.

“I was a little sad [that I was escorted out] but was more happy than sad because my purpose for being there was to give that document to Donald,” Cary said. “My mission was to make sure I got it in the right hands, because someone could have just easily tossed it or dropped it.”

The note Cary wanted to deliver was an eight-page document that emphasized that he was against both Democratic nominee Hillary Clinton and President Obama: “I have to get ready to come to Kinston,” it read in part. “Donald I am not including everything. But you must defeat lying Hillary and lying Obama. These characters are bad really bad.”

Cary says he is a Marine veteran and Trump campaign volunteer, and he claims to have been corresponding with Trump since 1992. That year he wrote Donald and Ivana Trump “an impassioned letter” upon hearing they were separating. To his surprise, he says, Donald Trump wrote back, and he has been an ardent supporter of his ever since.

According to a report in the Rocky Mount Telegram, Cary has struggled with vandalism or theft of the more than 40 Trump signs he kept on his home in North Carolina town about 60 miles northeast of Raleigh.

Cary told The Post that he now has about 100 signs on his yard.

“I support Trump because he's honest,” Cary told the Telegram. “You can work with an honest person and convince them their vision isn't in the best interest of everyone. You can't work with dishonest people. That's why I don't like Obama — the worst president in American history.”

It was not the first time a Trump supporter has been ousted from one of his rallies. In August, Jake Anantha, a half-Indian student at Central Piedmont Community College, attended a Trump rally in Charlotte

“And what happened there shook my faith,” Anantha wrote in a guest column for The Post afterward. Security officials told Anantha that he was a “known protester,” and despite evidence to the contrary, insisted that he must leave.

“I still don't know why I was asked to leave. But I think it has something to do with my race,” Anantha wrote. “My mother is white and my father is Indian. When [Trump's head of security Eddie] Deck saw me, I wonder whether he noticed that I look different from most Trump supporters. I wonder whether he assumed that I couldn't possibly support Trump because of how I look.”

From the start of his campaign, Trump frequently has been accused of being racist, perhaps most notably because of his years-long refusal to acknowledge that Obama was born in the United States.

Trump and his surrogates deny allegations that he is racist. Most recently, former New York mayor Rudolph W. Giuliani defended Trump on MSNBC by saying that “to call anyone a racist is outrageous” and noting that Trump has golf partners of different races.

“Racist? The last thing in the world Donald Trump is is a racist,” Giuliani told “MSNBC Live” anchor Stephanie Ruhle. “I've known him for 28 years. The man likes white people. He likes black people. He likes Hispanic people. He plays golf with them.”

Trump mistakes a black supporter as a 'thug'

10/31/16 09:20 AM

By Steve Benen

It's not exactly a secret that Donald Trump has struggled to earn support from African-American voters, but North Carolina's C.J. Cary, a retired Marine, doesn't care if he's one of a limited number of black Trump backers. In fact, when Trump campaigned in North Carolina last week, Cary wasn't just excited to see the man he hopes to help elect, he also wanted to pass a note along to the candidate with suggestions on how to broaden his appeal. As the News & Observer reported, it didn't go well.

He walked his way toward the front rows, stood about 20-30 feet from the stage and shouted "Donald" while waving his document to try to get Trump's attention.

“He entirely mistook that and thought that I was a protester,” Cary said.

Trump’s response: “Were you paid $1,500 to be a thug?” Cary was escorted out.

Before Trump’s supporter was escorted away, the candidate said, “You can get him out. Get him out.”

As a rule, mistaking a supporter as a critic is embarrassing enough, and Trump’s theories that protesters are being paid $1,500 by Democrats aren’t true.

But it’s the racial component of this that’s especially unsettling. Trump saw an African-American supporter and quickly assumed Cary was a “thug.” Over the summer, the Republican nominee famously pointed to a black audience member during a rally, saying, “There’s my African American over there,” That wasn’t well received, and by some measures, Trump’s use of the word “thug” is worse.

As for Cary, the North Carolinian told the Washington Post he plans to support Trump anyway, despite last week’s incident, and a campaign aide at the event assured Cary his note would reach the candidate.

“I was a little sad [that I was escorted out] but was more happy than sad because my purpose for being there was to give that document to Donald,” Cary said.

Presidential Proposal to the Honorable Donald J. Trump

Created by L. CJ Cary

Justice4America.Org

I.T.S. News

CJN News

“Proud to Be a Republican”

10.26.16

This proposal is based on primarily the needs of a Nation.

I call it:

The Midas Touch.

By nature, Humans are a bit self-centered. They are motivated by their needs, factual or imagined. They love gifts and they love to be in control or inclusive in their destiny. That is as best they can foresee a chosen destiny.

Mr. Donald J. Trump during the course of his Presidential Campaign has offended several Voter demographic groups.

1. Blacks

2. Women
3. Handicap
4. Additionally, I suggest he reach out to those of college ages.

Based on Human nature: Mr. Trump should strongly consider making amends to these groups thru the following steps. In contrition, when one does not intend to offend; and in none of these Voter Groups did Mr. Trump intend to offend. Nevertheless, many Voters have not felt included in his Administration and have taken offense themselves.

I will start with Women first.

1. With the type of offenses not crimes as in offenses, but offended, some women have taken against Mr. Trump, I recommend a clean suggestion to heal this and the following Voter Groups. Regarding Women, I suggest Mr. Trump:

- a. Give another apology followed by telling women his words were not representative of him nor how he feels about women. They are the greatest and no life without them. His heartfelt apology forces him to understand he needs to do more than just apologize. He will if elected, propose a special day for all women. It can be called The International Woman's Day. It will be a Federal Holiday. So they can rest or whatever they choose. This without a doubt will get their attention.
- b. Mr. Trump can have advised, he will make at least 50% of his appointees, women. This really may not be needed. But it will help.

2. Handicaps

- a. Mr. Trump can also make an apology not because he did anything, but more because they perceived he offended them. Mr. Trump can offer them hope via including them in his administration. That is, he will hire and/or appoint persons with handicaps.
- b. After attending your Kinston event, by which you so eloquently threw me out and called me a Thug? Really Donald? Handicap persons need to be given preferential treatment when it comes to any public events, any! As I worked my way through the crowd, I could not believe how many wheel chair bound persons were trapped in the crowd and of course could not stand up. This is scandalous for a Nation of our humanity. Even moreso when they are United States Veterans.

Exhibit N Proposal to Donald J Trump

3. College & Vocational Students

- a. Offer them a financial assistance. It could be formatted like this.
- b. Once they graduate, some of their school debt will be forgiven based on say they gpa.
- c. For A grades 50% will be forgiven
- d. B students 25%
- e. C students 0-2 percent.

4. Blacks. I saved this for last since it will be the more controversial.

- a. History tells us that on 9.22.1862 President Abraham Lincoln freed the Slaves.
- b. History tells us that President John F. Kennedy was loved by Blacks, not because of any legislation, but because he appointed Blacks to many key and important positions. As well he met with Dr. King and seemed happy to surround himself and meet with other Blacks.
- c. History also tells us that President Lyndon B. Johnson signed the Civil Rights Act of 1964.

During each of these Presidents terms, they were concerned about extending kindness to Blacks. Not based on their fears, but more based upon others who would disagree. However, they stood tall and have become Immortals within the Historic landscape of this Great nation.

The Proposal for Blacks.

1. A very bad word to some whites: Reparation. This is very important.
2. Reparation can be approached in a number of ways. I suggest, Blacks are allowed to feel proud in being Black and proud they are being blessed with a President Donald J. Trump.
3. I suggest this Reparation be given in part the name: Native Black Americans.
4. This is how it could work.
5. First defined. A native Black American could be defined as:
6. A Black person disposed from their homeland and thru capture or slavery was transported to our National Territories or Lands or the USA and placed in slavery, as historically defined.
7. Now those original Native Black Americans are long since deceased. However, their sufferings passed on to their heirs. Thus the thank you for this Nation will also pass on. Therefore, any living heirs will be afforded a status of Native Black Americans. Similar in part to the status of Native Americans.
8. The immediate benefits to them; They will receive a cash award, amounting to a sum yet to be determined. This amount should be significant enough to assist those who deal drugs, and other socially ill behaviors to know they can do better with effort: Now part of the benefits will be with you Mr. Trump bringing jobs back to this country. The anger Black Americans have is because of a Country their Ancestors were forced to build and the have received little other than food and not even room and board. Many are homeless.

9. Black people really do not know who they are: part of this test for Native status would require they go through a genealogy test.

10. The process of acquiring this Native Black American status could in part be given on an individual basis or by families. Some people have no families even though they may be living. The details can be worked out.

11. As my Mom said, it is the thought that counts.

12. Blacks should be told; you will be awarded high positions in a Trump administration. Something like my cabinet will be made of equal males, females, Blacks, Handicaps and so on.

13. Blacks are so angry because they feel this country offers them little.

Discrimination is not imagined; it is a real sickness here. I can attest.

14. However, with you addressing this, some of it if not much of it will abate.

Yes, this is monumental. In design and scope. But it is so very important you share the White House with those most greatly denied. Consider illegal aliens not only receive more benefits than Veterans, but certainly Blacks.

Then ask, what has Obama done for Blacks and more important, what is Hillary Clinton proposing to do for Blacks?

Donald be strong as you are, be courageous as you are and lead this Nation out of these dark ages.

Now it will certainly come up: how will these programs be paid for?

The very people who they help will have a vested interest in their Government since their Government is showing a new interest in them. As such many employees know where fraud, waste and abuse lies. They have no incentive to do better or care. So addition to the above, you institute an awards program, even if only a certificate.

Now this is in place in some agencies, but it has never been offered by a President Trump.

I have to get ready to come to Kinston.

Donald I am not including everything.

But you must defeat lying Hillary and lying Obama. These characters are bad really bad.

Donald, this is God's vision for you and this Nation.

Can I say?

“Believe me on this” :>)

Trump throws black supporter out of rally, calls him 'thug'

US Republican presidential nominee Donald Trump threw out a black man from a campaign rally in Kinston, North Carolina, after accusing him of being a "thug" hired by Democrats to disrupt the event.

However, the man who was thrown out on Wednesday, C.J. Cary, claims he is a Trump supporter and was merely trying to deliver a message to Trump to mend ties with some key demographic groups the GOP candidate has offended.

Cary stood a few dozen feet from the stage trying to get Trump's attention by waving a note and yelling "Donald," the Raleigh News & Observer reported on Friday.

However, Trump assumed Cary was a disruptive protester. "Were you paid $1,500 to be a thug?" Trump asked Cary. The celebrity businessman then asked security to remove him.

Trump has accused his Democratic rival Hillary Clinton of paying her supporters to disrupt his rallies

Cary, a former US Marine and resident of Nash County, told reporters afterwards that he plans to vote for Trump. "He entirely mistook that and thought that I was a protester," he said.

Cary said he sought to offer his advice to Trump that he should treat certain groups of Americans with more respect, including African Americans, women, college students and people with disabilities.

Trump's campaign has been marked by controversy from the beginning, including disparaging remarks about women, Mexican immigrants and Muslims.

Trump has historically low support among African-American voters, after months of inciting bigotry and racism. A NBC/Wall Street Journal poll released last month showed the candidate polling at 7 percent among black voters, while Clinton had 81 percent support.

Trump is also struggling with declining support among female voters following the release of a 2005 tape that showed him talking on an open microphone bragging about sexually assaulting women.

According to the latest Real Clear Politics average of recent polls, Clinton holds a 4.4 percentage point lead over Trump.

Stuff like this is staged so that the Blacks will swing behind Hillary Clinton. I notice every other week now he's said something "disparaging" about Blacks and the media headline news every setup incident. These situations are setup by jews so that Trump will lose minority support. I'm a minority as are Iranians, Blacks, Arabs and other non Caucasian groups and certainly prefer Trump over Clinton.

There is a Claim that Fred Trump Sr. was among seven men arrested following a May 30, 1927 brawl between members of the KKK and the New York Police Department, it is unclear what his role in that brawl was, if the story is true, which it may not be.

There is no proof that Fred Trump Sr. was in The K.K.K. Did you know that many of the Members of Congress were in The K.K.K. and some of the most well known ones, it was common in the old days. Digging up a Story from 1927 though is pretty Cowardly of you, the world was a much different place then. In The South, The K.K.K. was largely a response to Carpetbaggers and Harsh Treatment of The South after the Civil War, which was NOT about Slavery. I Doubt you understand American History well, or you learned it from some Zionist Friendly Teacher Union School. By the way, it was Sephardic Jews that ran the Slave Trade.

Let them fight each other why do you care if they are united or not what goes around comes around look at what they have done to middle east and other parts of the world by divide and rule doctrine now its time for USA to suffer the same thing.....without unity they created chaos in middle east and if they unite they will swallow the whole world at once so please do not advocate for them to be united if they are not willing to get rid of Zionism.

.....Why shouldn't I care?.....Americans are as beautiful as are Syrians,Libyan,Iraqis,etc.....

... Americans are being DEPRIVED of an HONEST....UNBIASE media....So they are for MOST part kept away from truth.....Because IF,they were AWAKE?(getting there!).....They would realize those behind 9/11.....are the SAME behind ISIS.....Another word we ALL have SAME the ENEMY.....It is called different names in different country.....But in reality they are all ZIONITS CORPORATE GANGS and their puppets and henchmen.....waging wars to LOOT nationsWhile PROFEETING from.wars.....So....We need to UNITE.....in United states.....In order to bring " POWER OF THE PEOPLE" back.....So I care for ALL in human family.....We are ALL suffering in different ways.....But the enemy behind the mask is the SAME!Time to lock them up!.....United Humanity Will Stand!

Hillary Clinton will do anything to win this election but there is a big surprise waiting a round the corner for her. The Neocon and the Zionist regime may strongly behind her but there is other people who don't want her in office because US don't ready for a war with Russia so this is going to backfired on her come election day.

2. "Any" means one or more.
3. "Communication" means any disclosure, transfer, or exchange of information or opinion, however made.

4. "Document" means any written, recorded, video or graphic material of any kind, whether prepared by you or by any other person, that is in your possession, custody, or control. The term includes agreements; contracts; letters; telegrams; inter-office communications; memoranda; reports; records; instructions; specification; notes; notebooks; scrapbooks; diaries; ; photographs; photocopies; charts; graphs; descriptions; whether or not they resulted in a final document; minutes of meetings, conferences, and telephone or other conversations or communications; recordings; published or unpublished speeches or articles; publications; transcripts of telephone conversations; phone mail; electronic-mail; ledgers; financial statements; microfilm; microfiche; tape or disc recordings; video and computer print-outs.
5. The term "document" also includes electronically stored data from which information can be obtained either directly or by translation through detection devices or readers; any such document is to be produced in a reasonably legible and usable form. The term "document" includes all drafts of a document and all copies that differ in any respect from the original, including any notation, underlining, marking, or information not on the original. The term also includes information stored in, or accessible through, computer, mobile device, video or other information retrieval systems (including any computer archives or back-up systems), together with instructions and all other materials necessary to use or interpret such data compilations. Without limitation on the term "control" as used in the preceding paragraph, a document is deemed to be in your control if you have the right to secure the document or a copy thereof from another person.
 - a. In the case of a person, provide, their name, address of principal place of residence and business (including zipcode); their telephone number and email address.
 - b. In the case of a communication, either written or verbal, the date, type (e.g., telephone conversation, video chat, face to face meeting or any other form of communications; the place where it occurred, the identity of the person or persons who made the communication, the identity of the person who received the communications, the identity of each other person who attended, when it was made and the subject matter discussed;
 - c. In the case of a document, the title of the document, the author, the title or position of the author, the addressee, each recipient, the type of document, the subject matter, the date of preparation, and its number of pages;
 - d. In the case of an agreement, its date, the place where it occurred, the identity of all persons who were parties to the agreement, the identity of each person who has knowledge of the agreement and all other persons present when it was made, and the subject matter of the agreement.
 - e. "Including" means including, but not limited to.
 - f. "Person" means any natural person, corporation, company, partnership, joint venture, firm, association, proprietorship, agency, board, authority, commission, office or other business or legal entity, whether private or governmental.
 - g. "Relevant time period" means the time period stated in item #1. above.
 - h. "Year" means calendar year or the twelve-month period on which your business records are based; if the latter is used in responding to an interrogatory, specify the twelve month period used.
 - i. The singular form of a noun or pronoun shall be considered to include within its meaning the plural form of the noun or pronoun, and vice versa; and the past tense shall include the present tense where the clear meaning is not distorted. The term "or" shall mean "and" and vice-versa, as necessary to bring within the scope of the following interrogatories all information or documents that would be excluded absent this definition.
 - j. "You," "your", "your company" your political party shall mean, any and all parties, parties to discussions, communications whether electronic or manual regarding the subject matter as herein revealed.

1. Unless otherwise specified, these interrogatories are limited to the time period from January 1, 1995, to and including the date of service of these interrogatories.
2. Unless otherwise specified, the information called for by these interrogatories is limited in scope to information relating to;
 - A. Written communication between Donald Trump, Lawrence CJ Cary (herein known as C.J. Cary) and Ivanna Trump withing the years of 1990 to 1994. Subject matter at the time was: Initiated by C.J. Cary and written to both parties asking them to consider not divorcing, but consider staying together and working out their differences for the good of the Country. Copies of these letters of communication, totaling at least 3 or 4 are herein requested.
 - B. Any and all communication related to the forceful removal of Plaintiff from a Republican Campaign Rally in Kinston, North Carolina on or about the 26th of October 2016. Which occurred between all Trump Campaign personnel, the Republican Party et al and any other parties, even if not named herein.
 - C. Correspondence sent to Defendant Candidate Donald Trump from Plaintiff C.J. Cary, between the years of Jan 2008 to January 2017.

 - E. Correspondence and communication between any faction of the Republican Party, Campaign(s) and Candidate Donald Trump, relevant to the event of the expulsion of Plaintiff, from the rally in Kinston, N.C. on or about October 26 2017.
 - F. Employee or contractor identity, as listed in the Interrogatory section below.
3. Where knowledge, information, or documents are requested, such request encompasses knowledge, information or documents in your possession, custody or control, or in the possession, custody or control of your staff, agents, employees, representatives and, unless privileged, attorneys, or any other person who has possession, custody or control of your proprietary knowledge, information or documents regarding the two named events above.
4. Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(e), you are under a duty reasonably to amend any answer to these interrogatories for which you learn that the answer is in some material respect incomplete or incorrect and if the additional or corrective information has not otherwise been made known to us during the discovery process or in writing.
5. For any interrogatory or part of an interrogatory which you refuse to answer under a claim of privilege, submit a sworn or certified statement from your counsel or one of your employees in which you identify the nature of the information withheld; specify the grounds of the claimed privilege and the paragraph of these interrogatories to which the information is responsive; and identify each person to whom the information, or any part thereof, has been disclosed.
6. Answer each interrogatory fully. If you object to any interrogatory, state the reasons for objection and answer to the extent the interrogatory is not objectionable. If you are unable to answer an interrogatory fully, submit as much information as is available, explain why your answer is incomplete, and identify or describe all other sources of more complete or accurate information.
7. For any record or document responsive or relating to these interrogatories which is known to have been destroyed or lost, or is otherwise unavailable, identify each such document by author, addressee, date, number of pages, and subject matter; and explain in detail the events leading to the destruction or loss, or the reason for the unavailability of such document.
